About the Care Quality Commission

We are an organisation called the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Our job is to check if every care service is:

- Safe
- Effective (meaning it gives good results)
- Caring
- Responsive (meaning it meets people's needs)
- Well-led (meaning it is managed well).

We then give the service ratings (or scores) of:

- Outstanding (meaning really good)
- Good
- Requires improvement (meaning it needs to get better)
- Inadequate (meaning it is poor).

About this service

Heart of England Mencap - 201 Drayton Avenue is registered to provide accommodation and personal care for up to 5 people with learning disabilities or autistic spectrum disorder.

We checked this service on:

What we think about this service

Across all the areas we checked, we think this service is good.

1. Is the service safe?

For the question, 'Is the service safe?', we think the service is good.

Staff knew how to keep people safe from harm.

There were enough staff to support everyone who used the service.

Staff knew how to give people their medicine safely.

2. Is the service effective?

For the question, 'Is the service effective?', we think the service is good.

We saw that people were asked if they agreed with decisions about their care.

Staff were trained so they knew how to support people in the way they needed.

Staff talked to doctors to make sure people got medical help when they needed it.

Staff supported people to eat meals they enjoyed.

3. Is the service caring?

For the question, 'Is the service caring?', we think the service is good.

Staff gave people enough privacy.

Staff understood what was important to each person who used the service.

People were involved in decisions about how they were supported.

People were able to choose where to go if they wanted to be on their own.

4. Is the service responsive?

For the question, 'Is the service responsive?', we think the service is good.

People were able to choose what activities they wanted to do.

People were helped to keep in touch with their families.

Staff listened when people had a problem with the service and staff put things right for people.

5. Is the service well-led?

For the question, 'Is the service responsive?', we think the service is good.

Staff talked to each other every day so they knew how people were.

Staff had regular meetings to talk about how things at the service could improve.

Staff asked people who used the service if they were happy with the service they received.

Staff were supported to learn and receive training.

What happens next?

We have not asked this service to make any changes, but we will go back to check this again in the future.
