About the Care Quality Commission

We are an organisation called the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Our job is to check if every care service is:

- Safe
- Effective (meaning it gives good results)
- Caring
- Responsive (meaning it meets people's needs)
- Well-led (meaning it is managed well).

We then give the service ratings (or scores) of:

- Outstanding (meaning really good)
- Good
- Requires improvement (meaning it needs to get better)
- Inadequate (meaning it is poor).

About this service

Heathcotes (Moulton) is a care home. When we visited, 4 people with learning disabilities were living there.

We checked this service on:

10 and 12 March 2020.

What we think about this service

Across all the areas we checked, we think this service requires improvement

1. Is the service safe?

For the question, 'Is the service safe?', we think the service requires improvement

There were not always enough staff.

Staff knew how to keep people safe from harm.

Staff knew how to keep the service clean.

2. Is the service effective?

For the question, 'Is the service effective?', we think the service requires improvement

Staff did not always have the training they needed.

People were asked if they agreed with decisions about their care.

Staff talked to doctors to make sure people got medical help when they needed it.

3. Is the service caring?

For the question, 'Is the service caring?', we think the service is good

People's private information was locked away. Staff gave people enough privacy.

Staff were kind and friendly.

People were able to choose where to go if they wanted to be on their own.

4. Is the service responsive?

For the question, 'Is the service responsive?', we think the service is good

People were helped to keep in touch with their families.

People's care plans helped staff to provide people's support.

People were able to choose what activities they wanted to do.

5. Is the service well-led?

For the question, 'Is the service well-led?', we think the service requires improvement

The provider hadn't always made improvements when needed.

Staff were supported in their work by the manager.

Staff had regular meetings to talk about how things at the service could improve.

What happens next?

We have asked the service to tell us how and when they will make things better. We will check they have done this.
