About the Care Quality Commission

We are an organisation called the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Our job is to check if every care service is:

- Safe
- Effective (meaning it gives good results)
- Caring
- Responsive (meaning it meets people's needs)
- Well-led (meaning it is managed well).

We then give the service ratings (or scores) of:

- Outstanding (meaning really good)
- Good
- Requires improvement (meaning it needs to get better)
- Inadequate (meaning it is poor).

About this service

The Old Rectory is a residential home. When we visited, 8 people with autism and/or learning disabilities were living there.

We checked this service on:

9th and 10th January 2020

What we think about this service

Across all the areas we checked, we think this service requires improvement

1. Is the service safe?

For the question, 'Is the service safe?', we think the service requires improvement

Staff knew how to keep people safe from harm.

Staff knew how to keep the service clean.

Sometimes staff did not know how to give people their medicine safely.

2. Is the service effective?

For the question, 'Is the service effective?', we think the service is good

We saw that people were asked if they agreed with decisions about their care.

Staff talked to doctors to make sure people got medical help when they needed it.

3. Is the service caring?

For the question, 'Is the service caring?', we think the service is good

Staff gave people enough privacy.

People were able to choose where to go if they wanted to be on their own.

4. Is the service responsive?

For the question, 'Is the service responsive?', we think the service requires improvement

Sometimes people were not able to choose what activities they wanted to do.

People were always helped to keep in touch with their families.

5. Is the service well-led?

For the question, 'Is the service well-led?', we think the service requires improvement

There were improvements needed in areas of the service.

Staff are supported to learn and receive training.

What happens next?

We have asked this service to tell us how and when they will make things better. We will check they have done this.
